

GANDHIAN STUDIES CENTRE

Report 2021-22

2nd October, 2021

On the occasion of 153rd Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, homeage was paid by Gandhian study centre. On the day honourable Rohidasji Patil, Chairperson of Shankar Narayan college addressed the importance of Gandhiji's ideology to all the students, teaching and non-teaching staff.

7th October, 2021

A national level webinar on 'Gandhiji's ideology on humanism in Imbalanced World' jointly organized by Gandhian Study Centre, Department of History and Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college. A webinar was inaugurated by Chairperson of the Shankar Narayan college. The speakers from renowned Universities conducted the four technical session. The 1st session on 'Gandhiji's thought on Humanism' was held by Dr. Santosh Bansode, Member of Board of studies, Department of History, Sant Gadge Maharaj Amaravati University. He explained views on humanity by Gandhiji. The 2nd session on 'Ethics and Values- Important Pillars of Human Life' was conducted by Dr. Shamrao Koreti, Department of History, Sant Tukdoji Maharaj Nagpur University. The 3rd session on 'Social Imbalances and Inequalities- A persistent Phenomenon' was conducted by Dr. Kaushiki Dasgupta Vidyasagar, Department of History, Midnapore, West Bengal. The 4th session on 'Gandhiji's Ideology to overcome social issues in today's world' was conducted by Dr. Jagdish Sonawane, Department of History, Savitribai Phule Pune University. All the sessions were informative, interactive and knowledgeable. All the participants were well informed about the Gandhiji's ideology by this webinar. For this national webinar 256 participants from 23 universities and 63 colleges were present. The participants who attended seminar include 78 teachers, 141 students and 37 others. This webinar was conducted under the guidance of Principal Dr. V. N. Yadav and Supported by Management. This webinar was organized and well executed by Dr. M. Satyashri, IQAC Coordinator; , Prof. Sunil Dhapse, Head of Department, History and Dr. Shital Khadakkar, Coordinator, Gandhian Studies Centre.

1st April, 2022

In this academic year 2021-22, the Code of Conduct was released by Gandhian Studies Centre and IQAC for all the stakeholders of the Institution- Management, Principal, Teachers, Administrative staff, Peons and Students. On 1st April, 2022 awareness programme on Code of Conduct was held with the aim to create awareness about duties, responsibilities and behavior of all stakeholders in the college campus as well as the community. After this session, Honourable Chairperson Rohidasji Patil released Code of Conduct in presence of all the stakeholders. Also the copies of Code of conduct were distributed to all the stakeholders.

Dr. Shital Khadakkar
(Co-ordinator of Gandhian Studies Centre)