The College provides the necessary infrastructure and the facilities to the students to take the Army training in the form of NCC. The college aims to see our NCC cadets be a Part of the Armed forces of India at officer level and also attend Republic Day Camp which is prestigious one at New Delhi. The NCC was first introduced in the College on 27th June 2010 by Lt.Col. Sunny Bakshi and the support of college Management with the strength of 40 cadets.

The training is presently being carried under the guidance of LT.COL Neeraj Kumar, NCO's (Non Commissioned Officers), JCO's (Junior Commissioned Officers) and the senior ranking cadets SUO. Ankit Rajput under the close observation of unit Care taker Prof. Ajit Jadhav.

The most integral part of NCC training is conducted in the various camps which include rigorous Army training. Unlike ordinary camp, the camps organized by our unit are very adventurous and educative. Every cadet is expected to undertake at least 1 camp every year.
